$\qquad$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& 12 \div 3=\square \\
& 18 \div 3=\square \\
& 27 \div 3=\square \\
& 30 \div 3=\square \\
& 15 \div \square=5 \\
& \square \div 3=8
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& 33 \div 3=\square \\
& 9 \div 3=\square \\
& 6 \div 3=\square \\
& 36 \div 3=\square \\
& 12 \div \square=4 \\
& \square \div 3=10
\end{aligned}
$$

1) There are 24 children. They get into groups of 3. How many groups are there?
2) Tricycles have three wheels. Altogether there are 36 wheels. How many tricycles are there?
3) Pencils cost $£$ 3. How many pencils could Jack buy for $£_{35}$ ?
4) There are 29 chocolates. Three friends want to share the chocolates equally. Will they be able to?

